

Andrew Ahearn

Manager, Engineering

- ❧ Andrew is the Manager of Engineering and oversees the operation of the distribution control center, power line technicians and technical support services. He is also responsible for the project management of several large projects.
- ❧ Andrew began his career in the telecommunications industry where he designed Fibre to the home networks for Bell Aliant. Andrew was then hired by Saint John Energy under the position of Distribution Engineer where he performed electrical designs for residential, commercial and industrial distribution.
- ❧ Andrew enjoys playing hockey, hunting and fishing in his free time.