

Derek Pannell

Commissioner

- ❧ Derek is a graduate of Imperial College and the Royal School of Mines both in London, England, an engineer registered in Quebec and Peru, a Fellow of the Canadian Academy of Engineers and an Honorary Professor of the Universidad Nacional de Ingeniería, Lima, Peru. He was President and CEO of Noranda Inc. and Falconbridge from 2001 to 2006 and Vice President Operations of Compañía Minera Antamina from 1998 to 2001.
- ❧ Past community involvement has included chairing the Abitibi-Temiskamingue CEGEP, a Quebec French language community college, Member NB Premier's round table on the environment, Board member Literacy NB, Director Canadian Opera Company, Toronto. He is now active within the Pannell Family Foundation, a charitable foundation supporting health initiatives, education, the arts and poverty reduction in the Saint John area.
- ❧ Derek is currently Board Chair of Brookfield Infrastructure Partners Ltd. and Board Chair of Agrium Inc. Derek has been involved in the acquisition and direction of Electrical Transmission assets in North and South America with some 10,800 km of high tension lines and associated equipment.

