

James D. Shaw

Commissioner

- ☞ Jim has over 40 years of professional work experience serving as Senior Manager, Partner, President and Founder of a wide range of financial related businesses.
- ☞ Jim achieved his Chartered Accountant designation in 1974, and his Chartered Professional Accountant designation in 2015. Jim has taught various courses on personal financial planning to various groups and organizations within the community.
- ☞ Jim has a long track record of contributing to his community, including current positions on the Board of Directors for Hospice and Loch Lomond Villa Foundation as well as serving on the executive committee for a Provincial M.L.A. He currently volunteers his time with the Hope Mission Food Bank at Rivercross Church where he is also a member and past treasurer, finance chairman and member of the board of management. In his spare time, Jim is a member of the YMCA and the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club where he enjoys boating with family & friends.