

Steve McGuire

Manager, Field Operations

- ☞ Steve is currently the Manager of Field Operations and is responsible for the Power Line Technicians, Distribution Control Center and Technical support. Improving the organizational effectiveness of all operational functions including the installation, maintenance and operation of Saint John Energy's electrical distribution system.
- ☞ Steve has over 30 years' of employment at Saint John Energy. Steve began his career with "Civic Hydro" as an apprentice lineman, then moved to Staker Detailer (power line designer). In 2006, Steve moved into the role as assistant manager of operations. Steve has demonstrated his ability as a leader in his role as assistant manager, bringing him to his current role.

